Now that your presentation is online, make sure to upload your picture and bio to the conference website!

Dear Maria Timberlake,

We have published your presentation, Compliance and Resistance: A Professional Learns to Navigate a Nursing Home, for the 2016 TASH Annual Conference in St. Louis, Missouri. To view, please visit:
<https://2016tashconference.sched.org/type/TASH+Talks>

We ask that you share your presentation with your network in social media!

Please use hashtag: #2016TASHConf

TASH Talks are informal discussions regarding a topic that are not meant to provide answers, but rather evoke creative thinking about an issue (e.g. personal experience, story, point of view).

Presentations are chosen at random from the list below. And, each presenter delivers his/her talk around a particular topic for 8-10 minutes.

Upload Your Bio and Picture!

You should have received an email with your password to upload your bio and picture. If you did not receive your login information, please do the following:

- Reset your password by visiting:
<https://2016tashconference.sched.org/password-reset>
- All you need is your email address
- Your login and password will only work for the conference schedule website

As I mentioned on previous emails, all presenters and co presenters are required to register for the conference. If you are part of a presenter team, your teammates must register in order for us to be able to add their names to the presentation. To register, they must go to:

<https://2016tashconference.sched.org/info>

You will have a chance to make amendments to your presentation at a later date. We will send you a separate update for that.

You are the POC for this proposal. If you are part of a team of presenters, we will not contact anyone else in the team but you.

Please contact me at ecanizalez@tash.org with any concerns or issues. When emailing me, please enter provide your presentation ID and title:

We look forward to seeing you in St. Louis, Missouri!

Sincerely,
